

Qualitative and Mixed Method Research
Stand-alone course
APPNA Institute of Public Health
Jinnah Sindh Medical University
(2 credit hours)

Introduction

The purpose of this course is to prepare physicians, dentists, nurses, public health professionals and other allied health graduates students for developing, implementing and evaluating qualitative research in their own health care settings. This course will equip the participants with skills, techniques, and knowledge necessary to undertake independent research using qualitative inquiry methods. This course will also gives an insight into the mixed methods study designs.

Learning Objectives:

By the end of the course the course participants will be able to:

- Define the background, evolution and philosophy of qualitative research
- Select the most appropriate approach for qualitative and mixed methods research
- Select the most appropriate methodology of data collection
- Develop a synopsis for conducting qualitative or mixed methods research
- Analyze and interpret qualitative data

Target audience

Health care providers, Health care Managers and professionals

Session details

Instructor: Prof. Dr. Lubna Baig MBBS, MPH (USA), FCPS, PhD (Canada)

Duration: Sep 07 to Dec 21, 2016

Timing: Every Wednesday 5-7 pm

Credit hours: 2

Registration Fee: 500

Course Fee: 20,000

Contact person: Mehjabeen Musharraf

Email: maria_132pk@yahoo.com

Contact number: 03343730134