

JSMU Student Council organized a very interesting session on 'Love for Allah,' and invited Shaykh Hussain Yee. Mr. Hussain is a Malaysian national of Chinese descent, born into a Buddhist family, he embraced Islam at a young age. The session opened with a brief talk on Basic Islamic principles and later moved on to the connection between medicine and Islam. He spoke about how we can take out time from our busy professional lives for Salah. Later, he convincingly answered the questions from faculty and students. Shaykh Hussain Yee said, he is delighted to see the hospitality and promised to visit Jinnah Sindh Medical University in future to impart knowledge of the religion of peace.
