JSMU Performing Arts Society, under the banner of JSMU Student Council, organized the biggest singing competition at JSMU which was perhaps the most appreciated event of the year too; JSMU IDOL SEASON 6.
Students from all the constituent institutes participated in this competition which was indeed a real battle of music with a variety of melodious voices going head to head.
Our esteemed panel of judges had Alycia Dias, Members of the Band E-Sharp who gained their recognition from "Pepsi Battle of the Bands" and the legendary Fakhir Mehmood who was also our chief guest for the event.
Our competition had two rounds. The first round comprised of 12 singers who were then shortlisted to 4. These 4 then battled in round 2 from where we got out winners.
Our winner was Adnan Hussain from IPS, first runner up was Yumna Khan; MBBS 4th Year and second runner up was Anas Rafaq; MBSS 3rd Year.
We also had special performances by an emerging battle "Saaz" who played sufi and mashup and we had the "Rap God of NED; Asjad Khan." They set the stage on fire with their performances.
Lastly, we had Umer Siddiqui of MBBS 2nd Year on stage. He gave a tribute performance for our honorable chief guest and judge "Faakhir Mehmood."
All the judges complimented the event big time and were glad to see that such talent exists in our institutes.
